

Our beluga whale report

By Lucas and Gracie

Type of animal

They are mammals.

What they look like

Beluga whale are small highly vocal arctic whales known for their bright white skin.

What they eat

They eat fish like halibut.

Where they live

They live in the Arctic.

Other interesting facts

They can swim backwards.

They live in groups called pods.

