

Our Snowy Owl Report

By Katie and Ollie

Type of Animal

A snowy owl is a type of bird.

What they look like

They are white.

Their feet are covered with feathers like slippers.

What they eat

They eat small mammals like hares.

Where they live

They live in the Arctic Regions.

Other interesting facts

A baby owl is an owlet.

They use their incredible hearing to catch prey like lemmings under the snow.

