

Our Beluga Whale Report

By Teddy and Juno FW

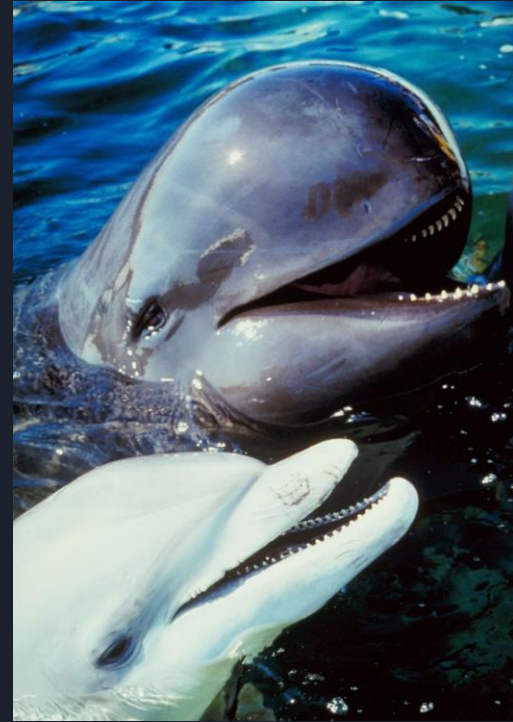

Type of animal

Beluga whales are a type of mammal.

What they look like

Beluga whales are born grey or even brown and they slowly turn white.

What they eat

Beluga whales eat fish, crustaceans and worms.

Where they live

Beluga whales live in the Arctic Ocean.

Other interesting facts

They live up to 35 to 50 years.

Belugas generally live together in small groups know as pods.

